FROM FR. JOE...

This Friday is, of course, Halloween...and, once again, Fr. Justin, Fr. Stitt, and I are hoping that a lot of young and young-at-heart parishioners will be coming by the Notre Dame rectory door that evening to get a little treat. (Please, no tricks!) I've got my costume all set, but the other two priests are still working on theirs. (In fact, Fr. Justin is looking for ideas, if you have any, since this will be his first Halloween celebration.) We look forward to seeing you on Halloween night!

And Friday is only Halloween ("All Hallows Eve") because Saturday, November 1, is the feast of All Saints ("All Hallows"). While there is no obligation to attend Mass for the feast this year (since it falls on a Saturday), it remains a holy day, and we're offering a 9:00am Mass at Notre Dame for anyone interested in observing the solemnity.

Our annual commemoration of the faithful departed on All Souls Day (November 2) falls next Sunday. As is our parish custom, at each of the Masses next weekend, we will be reading the names of all those who have died in our parishes or been buried in our cemeteries during the past year.

Visit Fr. Joe's blog: <http://fromemptyhands.blogspot.com/>

Come together with your fellow parishioners and meet another Saint with North Country
connections....

Friday, November 8
at Holy Family School

Potluck Dinner, 6:00pm

Bring your own place setting & a dish to pass:

- last names beginning with A-H, please bring a main dish
- last names beginning with I-Q, please bring a salad or side dish
- last names beginning with R-Z, please bring a dessert

Rolls and drinks will be provided

Film, 7:00pmIn Her Footsteps: The Story of Kateri Tekakwitha

This 50-minute documentary celebrates the young Mohawk maiden from our own region whose faith in Christ continues to touch and change lives 350 years after her death. (The film was prepared at the time of St. Kateri's canonization in 2012 by Salt & Light TV - the same studio that produced the popular film about Br. André which we viewed last year.)

March for Life 2015

If any high school student is interested in attending the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. this January, please contact Samantha at the office ASAP for more information. We will be leaving the night of Wednesday, January 21st and returning the night of Saturday, January 24th. Cost is $125 (partial scholarships are available upon request). During our time in Washington, D.C. we will be touring the National Monuments, attending the Holocaust Museum and the Smithsonian, attending the LIFE IS VERY GOOD Evening of Prayer with Matt Maher, as well as a Youth Rally Mass at the Verizon Center and other various things. Most importantly, we will be joining with thousands of other people from across the country in the pro-life movement by walking in the March for Life to stand for the dignity and sanctity of the human person. Seats fill quickly, so PLEASE let Samantha know as soon as possible! You can contact her at the office at 483-1300 or via e-mail at samanthafazioli@twcny.rr.com. Thank you!

The Diocese of Ogdensburg is looking for married couples to be presenters in our Pre-Cana Program. If you are interested in being involved in this ministry, please contact: Deacon Henry and Dayna Leader 622 Washington Street, PO Box 369, Ogdensburg, NY 13669; call (315) 393-2920; or email: dleader@rcdony.org.

NORTH COUNTRY CATHOLIC

Attention Snowbirds going south for the winter. You can take the North Country Catholic with you. Notify our office so you don't miss a single issue of the North Country Catholic! If you do not change your address the post office will stop forwarding the paper which will result in the stopping of your paper. They do not always tell us your winter address. Call (315) 608-7556 with your winter address.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Sister Barbara to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.
