FROM FR. JOE...

As you'll read in her own words later in this bulletin, our Christian Formation Director, Samantha Poulin, is stepping down from her position, effective June 30. What a blessing Samantha has been to the youth of our parish since she began in the position in January 2013, fresh out of college with new ideas and excitement! But since then, as you know, she's gotten married and had a son, and we certainly support her as she takes more time to be with her young family. We're sorry you're leaving our staff, Samantha, but we're awfully glad to know that you, Paul, and John-Paul plan to remain here in the parish. Thanks for sharing your faith and your many gifts with us!

As you might guess, the search begins immediately for a new Director of Christian Formation. Please join me in praying that the Lord will guide this process and send the right person our way.

Speaking of endings... As I type this, it looks like the asbestos removal at the former Adult Center is finally wrapping up. It's certainly taken much longer than originally projected (and cost a good bit more, too), so I'm quite anxious for this phase to be behind us. I'll keep you posted as plans progress for the demolition of the building. We're salvaging whatever we can from the structure before it comes down, so if you (or someone you know) is interested in any of those materials, please contact our Director of Maintenance, Brent Charland, as soon as possible.

Next Sunday also marks the end of our winter closure of St. Joseph's Church. It just so happens that our first day back this year is the Solemnity of St. Joseph—not only patron of that church, but the saint so very, very dear to St. André. To mark the feast, we'll have a special Mass on Saturday, March 19, at 9:00am at St. Joseph's.

THE ROLE OF MUSIC IN THE LITURGYMusic at Mass (Parts of the Mass to be Sung—Part 5)

“The Responsorial Psalm in the Liturgy of the Word of the Mass and other rites ‘holds great liturgical and pastoral importance, because it fosters meditation on the word of God.’ (cf. See General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 61) The Entrance and Communion chants with their psalm verses serve to accompany the two most important processions of the Mass: the entrance procession, by which the Mass begins, and the Communion procession, by which the faithful approach the altar to receive Holy Communion. Participation in song on the part of the assembly is commended during both of these important processions...” (cf. Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, no. 115, b, Antiphons and Psalms, para. 1)

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education Classes will meet again THIS Sunday, March 13th at the regular times. K-8 from 9:30a.m.-10:45a.m. at Holy Family School and High-School students from 7:00p.m.-8:30p.m. at the Notre Dame Parish Center. Classes will meet again on Sunday, April 3rd.

As many of you know, over the past few months I have been back to work with John-Paul. With much prayer and discussion, I have discerned that I will be stepping down from my position as the Director of Religious Education for St. Andre's at the end of this June. It has been a privilege and a blessing to work with so many of your families. Thank you for taking me under your wing upon my arrival just a mere three years ago. Your support has meant a great deal to me. Don't worry--the Poulin's are not moving, I have just discerned that right now for our family it would be best for me to stay home full time with our little guy. Be assured that you will all continue be in my prayers, and please, keep me in yours. Thank you for everything and see you around! Samantha

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL

Without diminishing Catholic identity or academic excellence, the implementation of the NY Common Core State Learning Standards within the diocese has established consistent learning goals for all students. It is vital that the curriculum at Holy Family School remain its own and that it remains rooted in faith. "These newly established learning goals not only form a baseline for Holy Family School, the curriculum remains our own", stated Mrs. Marianne Jadlos, principal.

For more information on this unique educational opportunity, please call Mrs. Marianne Jadlos at 518-483-4443 or email her at hfsprincipal@hfsmalone.org. We are most anxious to give families a tour of the school and to meet with parents to set up an educational plan for their children.
