In gratitude for the faithful witness of
THE URSULINE SISTERS IN MALONE, NEW YORK
 1898 - 2016

“Persevere faithfully and joyfully in the work you have begun.
 And take care, take care I say, not to lose your fervor...
 Now I am going, and you, in the meantime, do what has to be done.
 But first I embrace you, and to you all I give the kiss of peace, begging God to bless you.”

From the “Last Legacy” of Saint Angela Merici (1474-1540), Foundress of the Company of Saint Ursula

FROM FR. JOE...

As we've prepared for this Sunday's fond farewell to the Ursulines, we've been thinking and talking about a large group of religious women who's life and work among us for over a century has had a deep and lasting impact on our local Catholic community. But I would hate for us to get to this point and neglect to be specific about the last two Ursuline Sisters who have made their home here in Malone: Sr. Teresa Byrne and Sr. Sheila Murphy. While they may not have officially been members of its staff, Sr. Teresa and Sr. Sheila have certainly become a part of the fabric of St. André's Parish: bringing communion to the homebound, assisting with liturgical ministries at Mass, teaching in the diocesan Formation for Ministry program, coordinating the local Ursuline Associates—always and above all, teaching us the ways of faith and justice not only in word but by the witness of their lives. As you prepare to leave Malone this coming Wednesday, dear Sisters, know that we will feel your absence, but look forward to your return visits to the North Country. As you leave our parish community to join Ursuline communities downstate, you go with our fervent prayers and our deepest gratitude!

"I was in prison and you visited me."
(Matt 25:36)

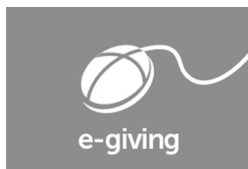

One of the seven Corporal Works of Mercy is to visit the imprisoned. While it is not possible for everyone to go inside the gates, we all can and should pray for those who are imprisoned and those who tend to their spiritual needs. Although they are unseen, they remain our brothers and sisters. As a community that plays host to several correctional facilities, this takes on a special significance right here in Malone. In this Year of Mercy, Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Ogdensburg has prepared and printed bookmarks with a Daily Prayer for Justice and Mercy and a Prayer for Prison Chaplains. Copies can be found in each of our churches. Please help yourself.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING
Awareness Week 2016 - July 24-30

Natural Family Planning is an effective, safe, and healthy way to achieve or to postpone pregnancy while respecting the design of the Creator. In The Joy of Love (#222), Pope Francis wrote that natural methods "are to be promoted, since these methods respect the bodies of the spouses, encourage tenderness between them, and favor the education of an authentic freedom." Couples who choose Natural Family Planning discover these benefits for themselves. To hear a personal account, go to www.rcdony.org/nfp and click on "One Couple's Story." To learn more about Natural Family Planning, contact Diocesan NFP Directors Angelo and Suzanne Pietropaoli at apietropaoli@rcdony.org, visit us at www.rcdony.org/nfp, or call 518-483-0459.

Is God Calling YOU?

"Mary has chosen the better part." Does a life of prayer and service as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life attract you? If you think you may be called to serve Jesus as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life, consider the power of His grace at work in you, call Fr. Joe, Fr. Scott or Fr. Bryan at 483-1300 or 483-4074, or visit the Vocation website at www.myvocation.net.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.
