FROM FR. JOE...

It is with great joy that we welcome Catherine Suprenant to Malone and to St. André's! Catherine arrived on Monday to begin her work as our new Director of Christian Formation. She comes to us from Olathe, Kansas, having graduated from Benedictine College in May with a bachelors degree in Evangelization and Catechesis. We're as eager to get to know her as she's eager to get started! She will hit the ground running, with our religious education program beginning is just over a month (which means that families with children in the program should be watching the mail for registration information). During her first year here, Catherine will be living at Frassati House. I'm sure you'll join me in making Catherine feel at home.

With Darlene and Phyllis now both out of the office, we have volunteers answering the door and the phones for the next few weeks. (Darlene has agreed to stay on as our bookkeeper—processing bills, writing checks, balancing the checkbook, and the like—“after hours,” and will continue with a few other responsibilities, too, during this time of transition.) Please be patient if it takes a little longer for us to work through parish business these days, or if you find the office closed for a day here or a few hours there. I hope to be able to announce some new staff members to you soon.

By the most recent count, we already have more than 120 parishioners signed up for the *INSPIRE: Called to Love vocations summit in Lake Placid on Sunday, September 25. Parishioners who have registered will receive a form in the mail to sign up for the two buses from St. André's: we have 108 seats available—first come, first served. Registration is still open for the summit; you can complete and return a paper form (found in any of our churches) or register online at www.inspirecalledtolove.org. Don't miss out on this opportunity to gather with other people of faith and hear some of the very best Catholic speakers of our time!

PRE-CANA MINISTRY: Volunteers Needed

Have you and your spouse ever considered witnessing to engaged couples the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage? There are many ways married couples can participate in Pre-Cana ministry in our diocese. Newly married couples and couples married for many years all have something to offer. We are in particular need of presenting couples for the Clinton Deanery. If you would be interested in finding out more about how you can witness to the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage to engaged couples, please contact Dc. Henry and Dayna Leader at (315) 287-2874 or (315) 323-0827 or by email at: dleader@rcdony.org.

GOSPEL CLIP*19th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Consider the variety of ways we use the word "service" to describe the work of different people. Those who work in government are said to have given themselves to public service. Members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines are all part of the armed services. Hotel and restaurant employees are said to work in the service industries, along with barbers, hair dressers, flight attendants, and entertainers, although it is a bit of a stretch to imagine folks like Jimmy Kimmel, Jay Leno, or Stephen Colbert in the same category as the hotel housekeeping staff. Every one of these service-oriented groups also has its caricature of the lazy, inefficient provider. There's the often joked about drivers' license examiner. There's Beetle Bailey of cartoon fame. And comedy skits about airline stewardesses or hotel maids abound. Yet all of these professions continue to distinguish themselves, despite the occasional "bad apple" that may turn up.

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus makes it clear that a servant (that is, a believer) must be constantly vigilant. Peter asked directly, "Is the parable meant for us or for everyone?" Jesus didn't answer him directly, but went on to add another parable describing the prudent, industrious servant and the lazy one.

We do not know when the Lord will return, and so we cannot rest on our laurels as though one good deed or one proclamation of the Gospel is enough. Yes, we have our employment, our family, our personal needs that we must attend to. But we are also servants of the Lord. When we get up in the morning, while we are preparing for the day and running through in our heads the list of everything we must accomplish that day, one of the things we can ask ourselves is, "What kind of a servant of God am I going to be today?" That can give us a sense of what can guide our actions as we work though the day.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving says, I have to; duty giving says, I ought to; thanksgiving says, I want to. The first comes from constraint; the second from a sense of obligation; the third from a full heart."
