FROM FR. JOE...

We've now got about 150 parishioners registered for the INSPIRE: Called to Love vocations summit on Sunday, September 25th, and registrations just keep coming in! We've also filled the first bus from here at St. André's, so if you'd like to ride on the second one, please reserve your seat right away. (Those who register for the summit are being mailed information about reservations for the parish buses.) Please note that the annual Diocesan Youth Rally is incorporated into the summit program this year. This event is meant for the whole family. Don't wait to sign up!

August 15th is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. While it certainly remains a holy day worthy of celebration, there's no obligation to attend Mass on the feast this year because it falls on a Monday. Nonetheless, you're certainly encouraged, if you're able, to come to Mass on Monday in honor of Our Lady!

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL

At Holy Family School, we know that every child is different. This fundamental truth is an essential part of our approach to educating young minds. Our students learn best when they're receiving individual attention from our teachers. That's why Holy Family School is committed to providing small class sizes, allowing each child the best opportunities to grow mentally, morally and spiritually.

When my husband and I drop our son off at Holy Family School each day, we not only know that he will receive an excellent education, but that he will receive attention and that he will be safe and cared for. It is truly a school like no other. It's just like leaving him with family. ~James and Melisa Feimann, parents of Wyatt, Grade 2.

For more information about Holy Family School, call Mrs. Marianne Jadlos, Principal at 518-483-4443, or email at hfsprincipal@hfsmalone.org.

DIOCESAN EVENTSPRE-CANA MINISTRY: Volunteers Needed

Have you and your spouse ever considered witnessing to engaged couples the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage? There are many ways married couples can participate in Pre-Cana ministry in our diocese. Newly married couples and couples married for many years all have something to offer. We are in particular need of presenting couples for the Clinton Deanery. If you would be interested in finding out more about how you can witness to the beauty of the Sacrament of Marriage to engaged couples, please contact Dc. Henry and Dayna Leader at (315) 287-2874 or (315) 323-0827 or by email at: dleader@rcdony.org.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Did you know that all volunteers and staff who work with children at St. André's Parish have had background checks and taken safe environment training? This training is also available to anyone who would like to know more about the danger signs of abuse. Protecting our children is a priority in our parish, and it's everyone's responsibility. To report abuse: If you have a complaint of suspected misconduct involving Catholic clergy, religious, employees, or volunteers, contact Terriane Yanulavich, diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator (518-483-3261 or terrianeyanulavich@yahoo.com) or Fr. Jay Seymour, Vicar for Pastoral Personnel (315-393-2920 ext. 1340). Making a report to the Diocese of Ogdensburg in no way means that you should not make a report to police or child protective agencies.

2016 RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREATS

If you or a friend are suffering after an abortion, consider attending a Rachel's Vineyard retreat at Guggenheim Lodge, Saranac Lake. The next retreat will be September 2-4, 2016. Chaplain for the fall retreat is Fr. Bryan Stitt. A confidential registration form is located at www.rcdony.org/pro-life. For more information, contact Colleen Miner: 518-524-0774

GOSPEL CLIP20th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Even one hundred and fifty years after it took place, the effects of the Civil War in the United States can still be felt. Even though the shifting population has tempered perceptions, those who work in the social sciences can still point to sections of the country where certain attitudes hold a greater sway than in others. And even though it may be unfair, there are times when a particular region will be categorized in a way that hearkens back to an earlier era. The battles of the war are still fought by teams who meticulously reenact the events in a harmless historical hobby. More nefarious are those who use code words and false ideas to resurrect an era that should be consigned to history.

The divisions that Jesus attests to in this weekend's Gospel spring from the real experience of the early Christian community in the first century of its existence. For some, Christianity was a dangerous philosophy that needed to be eradicated. Some of its propositions threatened the security of the state, like the worship of the one God and the equality of everyone before the Lord referenced in Paul's famous words to the Galatians: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (3:28).

The Gospel today is not an encouragement to family arguments. Jesus is not asking households to be so rigorous that our faith becomes a point of contention. But the Scripture does allude to a stress point that many of us may confront in our lives. Being a believer means that sometimes we must take a stand. We are called to proclaim clearly what we believe and to do that when it may be uncomfortable for us. We won't necessarily become a martyr, but there are times when there is a cost to our faith.

CALLLED TO LOVE

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving says, I have to; duty giving says, I ought to; thanksgiving says, I want to. The first comes from constraint; the second from a sense of obligation; the third from a full heart."
