FROM FR. JOE...

As we start a new month, there are a few upcoming events to get on your calendar...

(1) October is the month of the Holy Rosary. I will be offering two nights with mediations on the seven sacraments and Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, October 10-11. I was asked to prepare these talks and give them in the parishes in Redford and Dannemora on October 17-18...so I decided I would share them here with you, too.

(2) As we near the conclusion of the Jubilee Year of Mercy, we will be having a parish mission, October 22-26. Fr. Tom Higman will be returning to Malone as the preacher of the mission. (He gave this same mission in Potsdam earlier during the Holy Year, and it got great reviews!)

(3) Bishop LaValley has asked us to host the diocesan Blue Mass, October 30, to pray for all who work in law enforcement.

You can find the details on each of these elsewhere in this bulletin. Make plans to come!

A Big Thank You On Behalf of St. Andre Bessette Parish

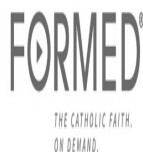

The Holy Harvest Festival committee would like to extend a harvest of gratitude to all who helped make the 8th annual festival a wonder event. Thank you to Stewart's Shops, Agrimark-Cabot Cheese, Price Chopper, Vincent Farms, D&M Market, Bone-steel's Garden Center, Nelson's Flower Shop, Carla's Greenery, Sue & Alton Savage, Paul Howard family and Papa's Dairy for all their generous donations.

Thank you to all the volunteers who helped in so many ways - for making Bundt cakes, for dessert and food items for the harvest table, serving the meal, drinks & desserts, selling tickets, organizing the great children's activities and the fun hay wagon rides.

Thank you to the old Timer's Band for the great music, to Holy Family School for opening your doors for the weekend, to Jennifer Kilcoyne for the wonderful face painting and to all the Advertisers for helping us get the word out.

Thank you to the parish maintenance and office staff for all their hard work, to the Boy Scouts for helping with clean up and to Reynold's Outdoor Events for the tents. And, of course, thank you to all who came out to enjoy the food, fund and fellowship at the festival. After such a great day, we're already looking forward to next year!

Gratefully, Holy Harvest Festival committee: Charlotte & Brian Broecker, Kelly & David Petrelli, Lynn & Alan Poupore and Darcy Gervais.

New Year's Resolution.....The school year has just begun and the new church year is just around the corner. How about making a resolution to go along with these new beginnings? The media racks have some new material. In particular, your attention is directed to three short books that have something for just about everyone. Thirsting for God gives you a meditation for each day from the newly canonized St. Teresa of Calcutta. Beautiful Mercy will be your companion for the Year of Mercy and beyond and is filled with short articles from your favorite writers on how to include the corporal and spiritual works of mercy in your daily life. Finally, we have Conversions which calls itself "a practical guide to bringing those you love back to the church." So make a resolution to try them out. We have limited quantities, but if you don't find what you want, let us know, and we will order more. Nothing could be better than to see them fly off the racks and make us reorder.

Helping Flood Victims in Louisiana

Disasters, such as floods, blizzards and tornados, devastate thousands of families and forever change countless lives. The recent flooding in Louisiana has been called the worst domestic disaster since Hurricane Sandy. As many as 60,000 homes have been damaged and hundreds of thousands of lives have been disrupted. St. André's Parish is sending $2,500 to support the work of Catholic Charities USA which is serving the needs of people of all beliefs who have been affected by these natural disasters. If you would like to personally contribute so that assistance, housing, food and other immediate aid may be given to our suffering brothers and sisters, you can forward a gift to the parish or give directly at <https://catholiccharitiesusa.org>.

Is God Calling YOU

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice." Will you let the Holy Spirit lead you beyond your fearful hesitation to follow Christ as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Is your faith in Christ leading you to grow in holiness as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? If you think you may be called to serve Jesus as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life, consider the power of His grace at work in you, call Fr. Joe, Fr. Scott or Fr. Bryan at 483-1300 or 483-4074, or visit the Vocation website at www.myvocation.net.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving says, I have to; duty giving says, I ought to; thanksgiving says, I want to. The first comes from constraint; the second from a sense of obligation; the third from a full heart."
