Welcome to St. André's Parish!

No matter who you are, where you've come from, or what brings you here, we're so glad to have you with us. St. André Bessette (1845-1937) spent much of his life serving as the door-keeper of his religious community; like him, we strive to open doors for our neighbors to experience the loving mercy of God. May Jesus fill your heart with his grace and peace!

From Fr. Joe...

A few simple matters of housekeeping and hospitality for your consideration this week...

May I have a seat? The seating arrangement at Notre Dame Church is a good bit different than that at St. Joseph's, leaving some folks feeling a bit out of sorts when the 4:00pm Mass moves for the winter months. One of the things I've noticed again this year is that many people who arrive early take their seat at the end of the pew, making it difficult for people who arrive later to take one of the empty places further in. Average attendance at that Mass has been around 250 people lately, which means there's more than enough space for everybody...as long as you can get to it. I'm not asking anybody to switch their seats, but could we all be attentive to let people into the pew when they're looking for a spot to sit? (And doing so with a smile and a warm "Hello" is even better!) It's a rather simple gesture of hospitality that goes an awfully long way toward making people feel welcome.

No thanks, I have a cold. We're in the midst of cold and flu season. I kindly ask those who have anything contagious (other than joy, that is) or whose immunity is compromised to please refrain from receiving the Precious Blood from the chalice for the time being. (I was asked recently if we just shouldn't offer the chalice at all at this time of year, but we have some parishioners who, for medical reasons, can only receive the Eucharist in that form, and we certainly don't want to cut them out from Holy Communion.)

Please pass me a book. A note was left in the back of Notre Dame last Sunday, pointing out that there weren't any song books (except for the choir) for those seated in the loft. So sorry about that! It must have been an oversight when the new ones were put out back in November. As you might guess, I myself don't sit upstairs very often...so I had no idea. I'm wondering, though, why it took 8 weeks for somebody to speak up. Please—if you see something of question or concern, do not hesitate to say something to me, Fr. Scott, or another member of the parish staff so we can try to address it.

I will be leaving for Washington, D.C., next Thursday (January 19) to serve as one of the chaplains for the diocesan youth buses headed to the annual March for Life. I haven't attended the March since I was in the seminary (about 20 years ago), so it will be quite something to be part of this witness to life with our young people once again. We'll return late on Saturday (January 21). Please keep us in your prayers, and pray for the protection of life in the womb!

LETTER FROM OUR BISHOP

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The Psalmist proclaims:

*For it was you who created my being,
Knit me together in my mother's womb.
I thank you for the wonder of my being,
For the wonders of all your creation.*

*Already you knew my soul,
My body held no secret from you
When I was being fashioned in secret
And molded in the depths of the earth.*

(Psalm 139: 13-15)

These words are particularly inspiring when we reflect on the gift of human life. The sentiments of the Psalmist are clearly those of gratitude: I thank you for the wonder of my being, for the wonders of all your creation. Do we believe every human life is a wonder-filled gift? When I don't embrace human life as a gift, then I need not treat it with any special dignity or respect. The body becomes merely an object that I can do with as I please. Enter: pornography, euthanasia, abortion. If I don't believe that every human life is precious, my heart risks becoming hardened towards the sufferings endured by others who are vulnerable: the refugee, the homeless, the immigrant.

Back in 1995, Pope John Paul II, in Evangelium Vitae, wrote: "Every individual, precisely by reason of the mystery of the Word of God who was made flesh, is entrusted to the maternal care of the Church. Therefore, every threat to human dignity and life must necessarily be felt in the Church's very heart." The Church's heart continues to suffer the wounds inflicted by our nation's Supreme Court Roe v Wade decision, when it decided, forty-four years ago, that human life in a mother's womb was not a precious gift from God to be protected and nurtured.

Again this year, tens of thousands of people from throughout our nation, including faithful pilgrims from the North Country, will join together in the annual March for Life in Washington, DC. Although the media gives this event scant attention, our legislators will see the large numbers of their constituents who care deeply about the right to life from conception to natural death. The message is clear and compelling: with grateful hearts, every human life is a gift to be treasured, not discarded.

Thank you for your generous support of this year's collection that supports our many local efforts to help form consciences to embrace the gift of human life at all its stages. Let us continue to pray that minds be opened and hearts softened.

Faithfully yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Terry R. LaValley
Bishop of Ogdensburg

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving says, I have to; duty giving says, I ought to; thanksgiving says, I want to. The first comes from constraint; the second from a sense of obligation; the third from a full heart."
