Welcome to St. André's Parish!
No matter who you are, where you've come from, or what brings you here, we're so glad to have you with us. St. André Bessette (1845-1937) spent much of his life serving as the door-keeper of his religious community; like him, we strive to open doors for our neighbors to experience the loving mercy of God. May Jesus fill your heart with his grace and peace!

From Fr. Joe...

Many, many thanks to all who came and took part in last Saturday's final Mass at St. Joseph's. While there was a real and appropriate sadness in the air, the liturgy was so very beautiful, and the church was filled with a genuinely prayerful spirit. A special word of gratitude to the choir and musicians: you sounded truly amazing! (Bishop LaValley said so, too!)

I will be away for a good part of this week, helping out at the annual summer retreat for our diocesan seminarians at the Guggenheim Lodge in Saranac Lake. Please pray for these young men who are discerning a call to the priesthood for service here in the North Country.

We're so happy to welcome home Fr. John Pietropaoli, LC, a native son of Malone, who will be home for a little while visiting his family. Fr. Pietropaoli will be offering the daily Masses on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday while I am out of town.

Visit Fr. Joe's blog: <http://fromemptyhands.blogspot.com/>

"In our prayers, we should not ask to be spared hardship; we should beg for the strength to bear it."

— Brother André

The pilgrimage is sponsored by the Adams Knights of Columbus, but open to anyone interested in joining us. Mass will be celebrated on Sunday at 12:15pm at the Shrine with Our Bishop, Terry LaValley, as the Celebrant. The cost is $150.00 per person which includes the bus, all the meals and the overnight lodging in the new cabins at the Shrine. Please contact Bill Ose at 315-232-4433 for more info and to register.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Did you know that all volunteers and staff who work with children at St. André's Parish have had background checks and taken safe environment training? This training is also available to anyone who would like to know more about the danger signs of abuse. Protecting our children is a priority in our parish, and it's everyone's responsibility. To report abuse: If you have a complaint of suspected misconduct involving Catholic clergy, religious, employees, or volunteers, contact Terrienne Yanulavich, diocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator (518-483-3261 or terrianneyanulavich@yahoo.com) or Fr. Christopher Carrara, Vicar for Pastoral Personnel (315-393-2920 ext. 1340). Making a report to the Diocese of Ogdensburg in no way means that you should not make a report to police or child protective agencies.

GOSPEL CLIP15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two." This Sunday we read the first sending of the Apostles to preach, teach, and heal. For many of us, it can be easy to think we "just don't have enough" to be disciples and evangelists ourselves. We don't have enough education and training. We don't have enough experience talking to people about Jesus. We don't pray enough. We don't have enough faith.

If you look at the Apostles in today's Gospel reading, they didn't have much either. "No food, no sack, no money in their belts." They didn't plan out their itinerary or book their lodging in advance. From what we know of the Apostles, they were not the religiously trained and educated ones. They were fisherman, tax collectors, and political activists. But what does being a fisherman require? Someone like Peter needed a strong work ethic to rise at strange hours. He needed patient calm to wait for the catch. Once ashore, he needed a savvy mind to fetch a good price for his labors.

As Peter became a fisher of men, he would need diligence to persevere through the hard journeys, long days, and persecution that awaited him. He would need patient calm with those who disagreed with him. As the leader of the Apostles, he would need a savvy mind to navigate challenges facing the early Church. From one perspective, Peter has nothing to offer the mission of Jesus. Thinking more creatively, one can see that -- joined with faith and love -- perhaps Peter had everything he needed.

Jesus sends you as well. As you take stock of your own talents, consider how they might be offered as a gift to others. Maybe you already have more than enough.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Parents who wish to have a child baptized should contact Rev. Joseph Giroux to make arrangements for the date and for a program of preparation. Parents are highly encouraged to make arrangements at least three months before the child is born, as the Catholic Church encourages Baptism for infants as soon as possible after birth. Adults and older children (seven years or older) interested in Baptism or entering into full communion with the Catholic Church should inquire about the program of preparation (R.C.I.A.: the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY

A Catholic wishing to be married in one of our churches should contact one of the priests at least six months prior to the desired date in order to begin making arrangements. A program of preparation is required. The parish should be contacted before any other plans are made—for example, the wedding reception.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

For those preparing for surgery, nursing home residents, or the homebound, contact one of the parish priests to make arrangements to be anointed. For those in the hospital (especially in the event of an emergency), ask the hospital staff to contact the priest on call.

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving says, I have to; duty giving says, I ought to; thanksgiving says, I want to. The first comes from constraint; the second from a sense of obligation; the third from a full heart."
